

Sandy Greenberg I have been a member of the Nova Scotia Voice of Women for about 15 years. I served as co-coordinator for two years, and as a member of the steering committee for about five years. I feel a responsibility to join with other voices calling for peace, disarmament, women's rights, and social justice. During my time with the Nova Scotia Voice of Women, I have helped organize and have participated in many peace vigils and marches. As a singer and musician, I have performed at numerous rallies, marches and peace concerts. Along with two friends, I also helped create a fund-raising CD of peace songs. As a children's entertainer, I practice peace in the way that I relate to children. I have also developed peace workshops for elementary school students."
